创作自述 / Artist Statement

从"石之生息"到后来的"熵颜"，绘画逐渐从静观与秩序，转向对破损、侵蚀与无常之美的凝视。石、植物、雕塑般的人体与残缺的面孔，反复出现在画面中。

我并不把秩序与失序视为对立面。真正吸引我的是两者在同一张画面里并存时产生的张力。

From Stone Breath to the later Entropy Visage works, the paintings move from stillness and order toward fracture, erosion, and a more unstable form of beauty. Stone, plant life, sculptural bodies, and damaged faces recur throughout the paintings.

I do not treat order and disorder as opposites. What matters is the tension they create when they remain visible at once.
